8.1 Opportunities for volunteering

Volunteer activities will complement, but not replace the services provided by paid employees.

Volunteer involvement at Housing Plus can occur in a variety of programs and services. There are two main categories of volunteers at Housing Plus:

One off – Support of a particular event or activity

Ongoing – Volunteers who carry out activities with a particular program in a regular capacity. For example, Fundraising, Donations Coordination and Courtesy Bus Driving.

8.2 Identification and definition of Volunteer Opportunities

There will be a staged approach to engaging Volunteers to deliver support services to Housing Plus. Opportunities will be identified by Management and position descriptions will be developed by the Volunteer Coordinator with input from team leaders and other managers.

If approached by an individual with skills that could support an existing service that is outside the Volunteer Roles that are being advertised, the Volunteer Coordinator will seek approval from Management before proceeding with the volunteer role description development and appointment of Volunteers for this role.

Where appropriate, Volunteer opportunities may be advertised externally through appropriate channels.

9 Recruitment

Recruitment of volunteers shall consider Housing Plus' commitment to cultural Diversity under its Diversity and Inclusion Policy.

All volunteer applications will be subject to selection and screening requirements.

For an applicant to be accepted as a Volunteer:

- Housing Plus must confirm that the volunteer applicant is suitable.
- There must be an appropriate role for the volunteer applicant.

9.1 Volunteer Selection

Selection of Volunteers involves the process of matching a volunteer applicant to a role. While Housing Plus seeks volunteers to meet its needs, volunteers similarly seek an organisation which meets their needs.

9.2 Volunteer Screening

All volunteer applications are considered on a merit basis. Housing Plus is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to equality and diversity in all practices including recruitment and selection of volunteers.

Assessment of suitability will include review of relevant experience and competencies that demonstrate the ability to achieve agreed outcomes, and capacity to attend at agreed times. Reference checks, WWCC (Working with Children Check) and Police Checks will be conducted as part of the assessment process. For some volunteer roles, a valid Driver's License may also be required.

9.3 Right to offer a volunteer role

Housing Plus has the right to offer, withhold an offer or withdraw an offer of a volunteer role to any applicant at any time. The offer of a volunteer role at Housing Plus is not a commitment of a paid or future paid role at Housing Plus.

10 Induction, Training and Supervision

All volunteers will be expected to read, understand, and agree to the policies and procedures as outlined in the Volunteer Handbook and on the Volunteers Portal.

In addition, volunteers will be provided with appropriate information and training to perform their roles.

Successful completion of this training is a condition of ongoing volunteer engagement with Housing Plus.

Volunteer supervisors are responsible for identifying and communicating to the Volunteer Coordinator any ongoing training needs of the volunteers.

10.1 Supervision

All volunteers shall receive appropriate supervision in the exercise of their volunteer functions.

When working with clients and customers volunteers will be accompanied by an employee or fellow volunteer.

10.2 Feedback

Regular feedback will be communicated from the Volunteer Supervisor to the Volunteer Coordinator regarding volunteer roles and individual volunteers' suitability for the roles they are undertaking.

In addition, volunteers will have regular discussions with their Volunteer Supervisor to ensure that the role is meeting both the expectations of the Volunteer Supervisor and individual Volunteer.

Where applicable, a formal review will take place every six months between the Volunteer Coordinator and the Volunteer.

10.3 Attendance and Availability

Volunteers that are continually unable to meet their agreed obligations in terms of attendance will have their Volunteer Agreement reviewed and potentially terminated.

10.4 Accident and Incident Reporting

Volunteers must report any incident or injuries to their Volunteer Supervisor immediately. The Volunteer Supervisor must then log the incident using the Incident Reporting form on PlusUs.

10.5 Workplace Health and Safety

Housing Plus understands its obligations to Volunteers under both the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 and Regulation 2017. Housing Plus provides a safe working environment for Volunteers.

Housing Plus' work health and safety practices and procedures apply to Volunteers. Accordingly Housing Plus will communicate the relevant safety requirements and responsibilities to Volunteers.

All employees and other stakeholders including volunteers have a shared responsibility for ensuring the health and safety of all persons in the workplace, including visitors.

Housing Plus is committed to:

- The achievement of a physically and psychologically safe and incident free Work Environment.
- The promotion of good health within the workplace .
- Ensuring risks are identified, eliminated, or controlled.
- Continuously improving our Workplace Health and Safety Management System thereby ensuring safety practices are maintained and enhanced.
- Ensuring that Employees and Other Stakeholders including Volunteers are appropriately trained in WHS in line with position accountability and responsibilities including individual obligations to personal safety.
- Ensuring WHS is an integral part of all project planning and work activities.
- Providing appropriate facilities, equipment, resources, and services to enable Volunteers to perform their role safely.
- Regular consultation and communication with Employees and Other Stakeholders including Volunteers in relation to WHS initiatives and programs; and
- Compliance with all relevant Acts, Regulations, Standards and Codes of Practice.

10.6 Volunteer Reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses

All Volunteers shall be reimbursed for pre-approved expenditure approved by the Volunteer Coordinator, incurred in the exercise of their functions, as set out in Housing Plus' Volunteer Management Procedure Document.

10.7 Termination of Service

Housing Plus reserves the right to terminate a Volunteer Agreement without cause or notice.

11 Management Reporting Requirements

The Volunteer Coordinator will report regularly to Executive and Board on volunteer activity, including feedback from Volunteer Supervisors regarding effectiveness of the program.
